STAR ISLAND CORPORATION MEDICAL INFORMATION

The Dement Building is equipped for basic first aid treatment. The Star Island Corporation assumes no liability for accidents, illness or their treatment. Individuals with medical conditions should consult their physicians before planning a visit to this remote rocky island. For your protection, please list any health condition which would help us to provide proper care in an emergency. Include names, specific medical conditions, allergies, continuing medication, etc. Although we have limited facilities for mobility impaired individuals, most sleeping quarters and conference meeting rooms are reached via stairs or rocky paths. Therefore, it will be necessary for a conferee to be able to, with assistance, negotiate rough terrain. Pregnant women should seek the advice of their physician. If in the final two weeks of pregnancy, our medical consultant urges you to delay coming to Star until next year. Any person under 18 attending a conference without a parent or legal guardian is required to have a Minor Medical Release Form completed, signed by a parent or legal guardian and returned to the conference registrar before your application can be accepted. Star Island is private property, owned and operated by the Star Island Corporation, and dedicated to religious and educational activities. Island conferences, as well as guests and day visitors, come to the island under a revocable license from the Star Island Corporation. This license can be revoked at any time if, in the sole discretion of those in charge of island operations, such action is deemed necessary because of behavior which causes disruption of a meeting or creates a threat to the health and safety of others or causes damage to island property. Please note any chronic medical conditions.
